Samantha Puffenbarger with SP Photography will be our professional photographer of the evening. A disk with all pictures of the evening will be available for purchase. She will also be offering head shots immediately following interviews, if you wish to do so. All terms and fees for services will be provided and dealt with by SP Photography on day of pageant.

All photos of the evening will be used for future promotional purposes.

REQUIREMENTS, JUDGING CRITERIA AND CLOTHING:

Pageant Rehearsal:

Pageant rehearsal will be held at the Pendleton County High School on Saturday April 6, 2019 starting at 10 am. Pageant rehearsal is mandatory. You will be required to sign the pageant rules and contract at completion of rehearsal.

Clothing should be casual. You may wear sweats, jeans or whatever makes you feel comfortable. You may wear comfortable shoes, however, you may want to bring the shoes you will be wearing during the actual competition.

Pageant Competition- Personal Interview:

All contestants are to be at the Pendleton County High School Auditorium dressed and ready in interview attire by 3:00 PM on Saturday April 6, 2019. Interviews will begin promptly at 3:15 pm.

Your three minute personal interview will consist of you appearing before the judges 'panel style'. The judges will ask various questions from your bio/ personal information page. This is your opportunity to allow your personality to shine and to impress the judges with your opinions, ability to communicate, confidence and your overall sense of style. Wear whatever you feel would be appropriate for an interview (no jeans), have fun and please be age appropriate.

Pageant Competition- Street Wear:

The street wear competition will be your first on-stage competition. Attire is to be a black t-shirt, jeans, and white tennis shoes. You may accessorize and make this outfit your own, but please no logos on shirt. You will introduce yourself during this stage of competition.

Pageant Competition- Evening Gown:

The evening gown competition should showcase you and your style of elegance. Choose a color and style that best represents you and your personality and that will look great on stage. No single detail of your gown, accessories, hair or makeup should be overlooked.

Pageant Competition- On Stage Question:

Contestants will answer an on-stage question to help the judges see your ability to think on your feet, your confidence in your opinions and your overall stage poise.
